Sandringham House, in Norfolk, is the favourite country home of H.M. the King. It is a modern building, erected in 1870, in a modified form of the Elizabethan style of architecture, the house being surrounded with flower gardens, pleasure grounds, and spacious park well stocked with deer. The entrance gates to the park are magnificent specimens of English ironwork, and were presented to His Majesty by the County of Norfolk on the occasion of his marriage.
